

Physiology Text Book Scavenger Hunt
CLASS SET- PLEASE RETURN

- * Please respond in complete sentences on a separate piece of paper.
- * Chapters 9 -20 are best for this assignment
- * Note: on page (iv) in the beginning of the text, PREFACE may be helpful with this assignment!

1. What is the title of the text?
2. How many chapters are in the text?
3. Find Figure 23.9. Describe what you see in the figure. What does the labeling system Figure 23.9 mean to you?
4. The text features, Disorders: Homeostatic Imbalances in boxes at the end of the chapter. Choose one [from the box] for a specific human system and briefly describe it.
5. At the beginning of each section within the chapter are Objectives found in beige-colored boxes. Specifically, how are these helpful to you?
6. There are two locations in the text for defining clinical & medical terms. Where are their locations and under what title (section)?
7. What does the text provide for a student who wants to check their understanding by reviewing? Discuss two. Be specific.
8. There are distinctive icons incorporated throughout the text. What do the following icons represent or feature?
 - A) Key
 - B) Running Shoe
 - C) Stethoscope
9. Using the text, how would you go about finding information on the effects of exercise and the respiratory system? Describe the process you used to get there.
10. List 1 feature of the following:
 - A) appendix A
 - B) appendix C
 - C) appendix E
 - D) Eponyms Used in This Text (very last page after the glossary)
11. A Focus on Homeostasis is a unifying theme featured throughout the text. For example, see Focus on Homeostasis, page 163 or page 398. What is the purpose of these sections called, Focus on Homeostasis?